Additional Information:

- In general, MAN 4320 – Staffing is offered in Fall semester only and MAN 4350 – Training and Development is offered in Spring semester only.
- In addition to the requirements outlined above, each student must complete all University-wide requirements for graduation. These requirements include CoreFSU, summer residency, FSU residency, total hours, and Civic Literacy Requirement. University-wide requirements may differ by admissions term to FSU, please consult your advisor
- Please be advised that business courses offerings in the summer semester are extremely limited.
- Students completing the HRM major receive a bachelor's degree in Management.
- Qualified students may apply for the Combined Bachelor of Science in Human Resource Management/Master of Business Administration (BS/MBA) Pathway. Students in the Combined BS/MBA Pathway can take up to nine hours of graduate work that may double count for their graduate and undergraduate degree requirements. Important information to note:
 - Graduation requirements for graduate degrees programs differ from undergraduate degree programs. If you are interested in finding out more about the Combined BS/MBA Pathway, visit <https://wertheim.fsu.edu/combined-pathways>.
- Students must not enroll in any course at another institution without first receiving approval from the Herbert Wertheim College of Undergraduate programs Office. Once enrolled at FSU, students should plan to take their upper-level business courses at FSU. Any exception to this policy must be approved in advance by the Wertheim College Undergraduate Programs Office. Transfer of upper-level business courses completed prior to enrolling at FSU must be from business colleges at other 4-year, AACSB-accredited institutions. These courses must be approved for course substitution by the Wertheim College Undergraduate Programs Office upon entering FSU.
- For additional information regarding the Human Resource Management major, contact the Department of Management, WCB 2200, (850) 644-5505.
